No Opposition To Cudahy Joining H. P.

No protest was voiced to annexation of an 11-acre section of Cudahy to the city of Huntington Park at a hearing called by the H. P. City Council this morning.

An election among the 50 or so residents of the area will be held June 14, City Clerk William P. Mahood stated.

The petition to annex the district was submitted March 7, and approval was given by the City Council.

Residents who signed the petition stated they wished to become part of an incorporated community in order to get better police and fire service and participate in affairs of local community.

H. P. Signal

Part of Cudahy Votes 18 to 6 to Join H. P.

Huntington Park is 11 acres larger today.

Yesterday residents of the small section of Cudahy on the southeast border of Huntington Park voted 18 to 6 in favor of annexation.

Only 24 voters out of 45 who are registered went to the polling place at the Mercury Trailer Park, 7826 Otis st., Cudahy, to decide the fate of about 200 residents of the area. The trailer park alone in which the votes were taken has more than half the population.

The Huntington Park City Council will canvass the vote at its meeting Monday, and the annexation will become official when registered with the state.

"We realize it will take time," said W. L. Covert, one of the leaders of the annexation move, when asked about improvements the district hopes to get in joining Huntington Park. Jokingly he remarked, "Maybe first we'll have them move the City Hall over here."

There was no joking in the rest of Cudahy, however. Many property owners are fearful the move to annex 300 more acres will also be successful. Leaflets against the annexation have appeared.

The group which feels it has everything to gain by joining Huntington Park and deserting a sluggish county administration is expected to launch a full-scale effort to get signatures on a petition to call a vote for their section of Cudahy.

An estimated 4000 population is involved in the second annexation action.

Secretary of State Certificate
I, F. M. Jordan, Secretary of State of the State of California hereby Certify:
